VIEW FROM THE EAST

By Michael Kofta, Worshipful Master

Greetings from the East,

Brothers and Sisters, greetings. May the Great Architect of the Universe continue to bestow his many blessings upon you.

We have not yet seen, nor may we not soon see, our Brothers and Sisters from the North this year due to the COVID restrictions. Please keep them in your thoughts and prayers until we can safely meet again.

We are having to learn to adapt ourselves in our personal as well as our public lives in order to stay healthy in this new environment. Rather than having our fears of the pandemic rule our lives, we have faced them and adapted. Hopefully, we will all be healthier and stronger and can put this all safely behind us soon.

Our Lodge Officers have been working extremely hard on their ritual work and are becoming very proficient in their work. We have kicked our work into high gear for the remainder of this Masonic Year in order to meet our Masonic Lodge requirements. We have two Brothers that have been passed to the Degree of Fellowcraft and we have new candidates waiting for the Degrees. I plan to have completed at least an Exemplar for Master Mason Degree prior to our elections in November.

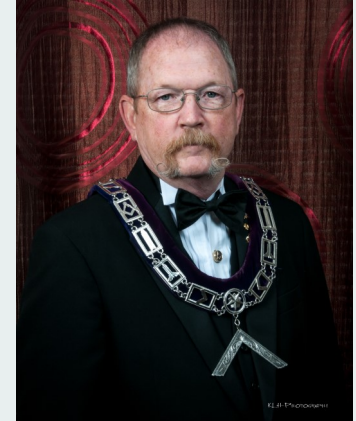

It is my desire that all of our requirements for the Lodge will be met prior to our election date in November in order to ease the transition for the next Worshipful Master and advancing Line Officers. Look for information to be forthcoming on the new Grandview Membership portal with instructions for registering. This should make our records and communications easier for all to access and update.

Elections for our Lodge Officers as well as Local, State and Federal Government offices are also soon upon us in this election year. Look well to your ballots not only for the sake of Masonry, but for our country and our communities as well.

Until further notice, there still will be no dinner prior to or social gatherings of Brethren in the Lodge either before or after Lodge meeting. Other recommended personal precautionary measures are posted at the entrances to the Lodge.

Brothers and Sisters, your health and well-being remain of the utmost priority. If there is anything either myself or the Lodge can do for you please do not hesitate to ask.

Axes, Dogs, Spots, and Leopards

A tale of: The Lumberjack in the Forest

There are many great, and many more not so great, old adages of speech, some of which have stood the tests of time. In particular of those weakening quotes in reference to one's character of mind and being: "A leopard never changes his spots"; everyone knows that "old dogs can't/don't learn new tricks"; or that "grinding an axe doesn't necessarily make it sharp." Simply implied, it is impossible for one to change his character and overall state of being. Much like the dog and the leopard.

- "Abraham Lincoln, our 16th President of the United States, was quoted as saying: 'Give me six hours to chop down a tree and I will spend the first four sharpening the ax.' An ax is a strength multiplier. You can be the strongest lumberjack in the world, but with a dull axe, you are in trouble! Thinking about the topic, learning how to learn, improving before doing...all these things are strength multipliers. You can work hard, hustle, put in the hours, do the work, etc., but the magic happens when you aim to perfect your skills beforehand."

-Quoted from Zachary Forget, medium.com

- "When someone is sharpening the saw, they are taking time out, learning and improving so they can be more effective in their job. When someone has an axe to grind, they are angry, and looking for an excuse to take it out on someone. Now perhaps the former image is that of the careful and thoughtful craftsman. Perhaps the second image is one of sparks flying off a piece of metal in a grinder."

-Submitted by (username) Hawkeye, english.stackexchange.com

- "If an iron axehead is blunt and a workman does not sharpen its edge, he must exert a great deal of effort [force]; so wisdom has the advantage of giving success.

-Ecclesiastes 10:10, New English Translation NET bible

If your saw or axe[head] becomes weakened and frail from overuse and will no longer cut, and you in-turn become ineffective at performing your abilities, as a master workman maybe it is time to get a new anvil and forge. For as the written word teaches us, wisdom is much more powerful than any tool of iron.

We are constantly ever changing and rapidly evolving as a species of the human race, and we must have the awareness [on a swivel] at what is no longer servicing us, and how we can best adapt and perform to the many challenges and opportunities life bestows us.

By Sean Godfrey

I have learned through observation that practiced optimism is the key to leadership and understanding. Perspective is that train of thought in which grounds us to the mundane and shapes the view of the world we live.

Simple philosophical study exercise: The looking glass: What do you perceive it to be?

If you strongly believe that nothing can be done either by yourself or by others to change, of that which will make this life, community, and world a better place, as a Master of the Craft, then maybe it is time to look much closer and deeper within, to the many problems we face as a whole. Take a look into the looking glass and ask yourself these three tantalizing questions to see into and empower ones character of mind and being:

1. What is wrong with what I am doing/not doing in all aspects of my life?
2. How may I change for the betterment of myself, family and of the community of those around me I serve [society/world]?
3. How may I take what I have learned, and put it to use in a practical sense, helping to shape the reality of the rapidly evolving, fractured, and clouded mindscape of the human race?

The single most powerful question of any philosopher of studies that one can ask oneself and others is: Why?

- “Clouds and darkness surround us, yet Heaven is just, and the day of triumph will surely come, when justice and truth will be vindicated. Our wrongs will be made right, and we will once more taste the blessings of Freedom, of which the degraded rebels would deprive us.”

-Quoted from Mary[ann] Todd Lincoln, former first lady

- “This Great Nation was founded on the principles of Freemasonry; and we shall look to Freemasonry to triumph victory once more.”

-Sir Knight SRG

I am no lumberjack, however I have purchased many axes in my days, and none of them come sharp “out of the box.” It is but of the garden, of the heart, mind, and soul, of the fields we toilsomely man: sow, nourish, and cultivate and by the extreme gratitude for the diurnal plenitude of the ripening easterly rays, that we shall produce the many bounties of our harvests of our labors.

So, the next time you see an ‘ole spotty dog or a leopard that wants to be a lion, a workman’s axe that simply will not cut efficiently any longer, or a section of crop that has spoiled from the center, remember the tale of the Lumberjack in the Forest, and seek the value in and of the written word, contained within the Volumes of Sacred Law, and their many teachings that has been bestowed, handed down and given to us, from afar.

May you all continue to be guided by the light in which emanates from the center of all well-governed lodges. And may the G.A.O.T.U. continue to be with and within you and your loved ones.

Fraternally yours,
Sean R. Godfrey

GREETINGS FROM THE SOUTH

By Benjamin Hinderer

Greetings from the SOUTH,

Hello Brothers. It was nice to see one of our Brothers hit 60 years recently. I hope to also see 60 years of brotherhood one day. It definitely gives you something to look forward to. We also have some new candidates looking forward to receiving the light the rest of us have already received. Let us all remember to help lead these new candidates to see the light, which the rest of us know.

2020 has been one crazy year, let us pray for those brothers who normally make their way back North for the summer that none of them were severally effected by the many wildfires raging. Hopefully they will still be able to make their way back down South and help continue to hold down the chairs in the Northwest corner of the Lodge room.

Thankfully we have been able to keep the Lodge running during this time of uncertainty. Let us remember to keep searching for knowledge, never stop learning and never stop trying to better yourself.

MUSINGS FROM THE DESK OF THE SENIOR GRAND DEACON

By WB Michael Dale

CARDINAL VIRTUES

The cardinal virtues are the four principal moral virtues. The English word cardinal comes from the Latin word cardo, which means “hinge.” All other virtues hinge on these four: temperance, fortitude, prudence, and justice. We as Freemasons are introduced to these virtues in the First Degree.

Plato first discussed the cardinal virtues in the Republic and they entered into Christian teaching by way of Plato’s disciple Aristotle. Unlike the theological virtues, which are the gifts of God through grace, the four cardinal virtues can be practiced by anyone; thus, they represent the foundation of natural morality.

Temperance is the restraint of our desires or passions. Food, drink, and sex are all necessary for our survival, individually and as a species; yet a disordered desire for any of these goods can have disastrous consequences, physical and moral.

Temperance is the virtue that attempts to keep us from excess and, as such, requires the balancing of legitimate goods against our inordinate desire for them. Our legitimate use of such goods may be different at different times; temperance is the “golden mean” that helps us determine how far we can act on our desires.

Fortitude is commonly called courage. It is very different from what we think of as courage today. Fortitude allows us to overcome fear and to remain steady in our will in the face of obstacles, but it is always reasoned and reasonable; the person exercising fortitude does not seek danger for danger’s sake. Fortitude gives us the strength to do the right thing.

Fortitude is the only one of the cardinal virtues that is also a gift of the Holy Spirit, allowing us to rise above our natural fears in defense of the Christian faith.

Prudence is concerned with the intellect. Aristotle defined prudence as recta ratio agibilium, “right reason applied to practice.” It is the virtue that allows us to judge correctly what is right and what is wrong in any given situation. When we mistake the evil for the good, we are not exercising prudence – in fact, we are showing our lack of it.

Because it is so easy to fall into error, prudence requires us to seek the counsel of others, particularly those we know to be sound judges of morality. Disregarding the advice or warnings of others whose judgment does not coincide with ours is a sign of imprudence.

Justice is concerned with the will. Justice is the constant and permanent determination to give everyone his or her rightful due. We say that “justice is blind” because it should not matter what we think of a particular person. If we owe him a debt, we must repay exactly what we owe.

By WB Michael Dale

Justice is connected to the idea of rights. While we often use justice in a negative sense (“He got what he deserved”), justice in its proper sense is positive. Injustice occurs when we as individuals or by law deprive someone of that which he is owed. Legal rights can never outweigh natural ones.

I found the following by William R. Fischer which I believe is just as true today as when it was written in the early 1900s.

If you had three wishes what would you wish for? Most people would wish to:

1. Live forever.
2. Win the lottery.
3. Have peace on earth.

Living forever, although it seems immortal, is one of the most mortal parts of mankind abilities. We all live forever, for as long as you live that is forever. When your body expires your spirit lives on and people who know you will remember you, and that remembrance will keep you living forever.

Winning the lottery is much more difficult. First you have to play to win and then be one out of twenty million. But all of this does not matter because we have enough for ourselves and our families. We have enough to live on and to survive; we may not have it as easy as others but we have enough.

Peace on earth is a matter of cooperation and understanding. The more we understand each other the less difficult it will be to cooperate and achieve peace.

We can be sure that some have other wants or needs, noble and selfish, but what about an alternative. How about ABILITY, STRENGTH, and WISDOM.

With ability, TEMPERANCE would be easy. If you have the ability to accomplish what you wish, temperance would be the first accomplishment. To be able to control one’s desires is the goal of every good man. This would make it easy for you to help others through your example and your knowledge.

With strength, FORTITUDE is a part. To be strong of character you must have fortitude. Fortitude is the driving force in strength of character. This would give you the skill to deal with those who would subvert the good you are trying to do.

With wisdom, PRUDENCE would be found and JUSTICE could be served. Prudence is a part of wisdom. To be wise is to be prudent. Justice is known to a wise person. Thus, to be wise is to have the know-how to administer justice. Having the knowledge to use prudence and dispense justice can only come from wisdom. Thus, we would be able to tell who is in need and who is causing the pain of need.

So if given three wishes, maybe we should wish for:

- The ability to help those in need.
- The strength to forgive those who cause pain.
- The wisdom to know the difference.

If we all did this we would still live forever, we would all be richer, and peace on earth would last for an eternity.

Patience – you are told to wait a time of patience. That is the beginning of the lesson and soon forgotten, then you are told again, and again, then...the mistake is made and you can’t learn anymore. Have patience in life, with people and with learning.

Let’s start off with some good news – we’re back! We just had our first stated meeting in Lodge since this whole COVID–19 happened. And now it’s time to put the work in and do some degree work. (Hopefully we don’t get shut down again.)

Brotherly Love,
Roy Wright

A MESSAGE FROM YORK RITE

Congratulations to Sir Knights Don Chilcote and Michael Dale for their invitation to become a member of the Knights of York Cross of Honour.

The Knights of York Cross of Honour (KYCH) was established as an Honor Group for York Rite Masons. The requirement for membership are that each proposed candidate for membership must have presided over a Lodge as Worshipful Master, over a Royal Arch Chapter as Excellent High Priest, over a Council as Thrice Illustrious Master, and over a Commandery as Eminent Commander for at least one entire year. Knights of the York Rite Cross of Honour are York Rite Masons who are dedicated to serving the Masonic Fraternity as a labor of love.

No individual aspires to membership in KYCH. When the individual has completed the work and labor and has done it well, he will be rewarded by being invited to become a member. Prior to being invited, the name of the individual is submitted by a member of the Priory. The prospective member will not know that he has been elected to petition for membership.

Just serving as the Master, High Priest, Thrice Illustrious Master, and Eminent Commander does not automatically make you eligible for this prestigious honor. You must have worked for the Good of the Order. As a Knight of the York Cross of Honour, you are a proven servant of the Masonic Fraternity, your inspiration came from your Past, your Duty is in the Present, your Hope is in the Future, you must always remember – in all you do, in all you say, in all of your actions, take a good look at yourself, you are someone’s impression of Freemasonry.

Congratulation also go out to Worshipful Brother Michael Dale who has been elected to the Knights of the Red Cross of Constantine and Appendant Orders.

The first Christian Emperor of Rome, Flavius Valerius Constantine, created the order after seeing a heavenly vision which caused him to convert to the Christian Faith, after which he passed away. Knights Companions of the Red Cross of Constantine is the most ancient of the Chivalric Orders or Military Fraternities. This order has existed in unbroken continuity from the time of its inception until today.

The Yuma Commandery of the York Rite Knights Templar will have their Christmas Observance on Monday, December 21st at 7pm. All are invited to observe and celebrate with us.

Masonic labor is purely a labor of love. He who seeks to draw Masonic wages in gold and silver will be disappointed. The wages of a Mason are in the dealings with one another; sympathy begets sympathy, kindness begets kindness, helpfulness begets helpfulness, and these are the wages of a Mason.

AZ QUOTES

STAR IN THE EAST

Submitted by B.J. Dale, Conductress
(Carolyn Simson, Worthy Matron)

Greetings everyone!

We hope that this finds everyone doing well and staying safe. With permission from the Most Worthy Grand Matron, Marianne Shenefelt, and our Worthy Grand Matron, Susan Warren, the Chapter was finally able to hold its first meeting of the 2020–2021 term. The meeting was on October 13th at 7:00pm. There were a total of 15 people in attendance consisting of officers, members, and guests. There was no dinner served and no refreshments afterwards to stay in compliance of the guideline passed down from our MWGM & WGM. The people in attendance were happy to see everyone in person. For those who did not attend, you were missed but we look forward to hopefully seeing you at one of the meetings in the future. Please only attend if you feel well enough and are comfortable attending. The next meetings that are planned at this time will be on Tuesday, October 27th, November 10th, and December 8th. Again, there will be no food or refreshments served. All meetings will start promptly at 7pm.

The Chapter is planning on holding a fundraiser in the near future that will benefit the General Grand Chapter's Service Dog Project. Be on the lookout for information to come as soon as the details have been ironed out. We feel that this will be a great success and in support for a good cause, not only for the service dogs, but the military veterans that are in need.

We would like to wish a Happy Birthday to our upcoming birthdays:

- NOVEMBER: Joyce Brown (11/13), Carol Smith (11/7), Sabrina Arps (11/19), Molly Erskine (11/23), Jerry McAdams (11/26), Norma Trujillo (11/27)
- DECEMBER: Jack Prather (12/5), Betty McAdams (12/8), Don "Red" Beaton (12/15), Jimmy Seals III (12/16), Darrell Fischer (12/13)

Until next time, please keep all of our ailing members in your thoughts and prayers. If you know someone that isn't feeling well, would appreciate a phone call or card, or may need assistance getting to appointments or to the store, please call Carolyn Simson (Worthy Matron) 928 247-5962 (or any Chapter member) to let her know. We miss seeing all of you and we hope to see everyone's smiling faces at our future meetings. Take care and be safe!

PUBLISHER'S CORNER

It's Fall y'all! This is my favorite time of year – if we were on the east coast we would see the leaves changing colors; here, we see the changing of the license plates! But no matter where you are, the weather cools off, which is a welcome relief to those of us in Arizona.

Eastern Star held their first in-person meeting in October and I have to say, I missed everyone! I was able to keep in contact with some people via our Zoom meeting, but I didn't realize how many people I HAVEN'T seen in awhile. It felt like we didn't miss a beat, which to me is the sign of a great friendship/fellowship. When you can come together no matter how long it's been since you've seen the other person and it's like no time has passed! I miss having get togethers, but I have hope that we will ALL be able to get together soon. My girls are itching to see everyone again, so it's not just the Sisters and Brothers that miss each other. Our families miss each other and that gives me the greatest pride, that my girls are growing up with their Masonic family and know and understand that feeling of family!

If you are able to or comfortable coming to meetings, please try to come. We all understand if you can't, but know you are all missed! Please continue to practice social distancing and self-quarantine if you need to. Continue to reach out to your Brothers and Sisters, check in on them, make sure they are okay or see if they need anything.

If there is anything you would like to see in the Trestleboard or have any suggestions, please feel free to let me know! If you attend an event, don't forget to take pictures and submit them, either to me or on Facebook. Take care and stay safe!

Sincerely,
Sabrina Arps
